

Panel 1: The Silent Meeting

Aatif kneels softly on the moss-covered floor of an ancient forest, offering a quiet hand to a majestic, luminescent deer. Rays of golden sunlight pierce through the thick canopy, capturing floating motes of dust in a timeless, poetic moment.

Caption: Sunlight weaves through ancient boughs as the forest holds its breath.

I reach into the stillness, extending a hand not to master the wild, but to touch the quiet spirit of light itself.
